

Dialogue at the Edge of Auschwitz – Perspectives

for a Theology After Auschwitz

In this book we present some fruits of more than 15 years of dialogue at the Centre for Dialogue and Prayer in Oświęcim. They represent not only deep theological reflection about Auschwitz, but also quite different perspectives and approaches. We put them in sequence as Polish, Jewish and German voices.

Table of Contents

Manfred Deselaers

The Significance of Perspectives for a Theology after Auschwitz

Polish Voices

Łukasz Kamykowski

An Overview of Auschwitz from the Polish Perspective

Marek Nowak

Experience of Dialogue in Poland – A Study in Prehistory

Henryk Seweryniak

Theology after Auschwitz – Polish Perspective

Krzysztof Kaucha

Perspectives of Polish Fundamental Theology after Auschwitz

Jewish Voices

Michael Signer

American Jewish Theology after Auschwitz

Sacha Pecaric
Inability of talking

Alon Goshen-Gottstein
The Question of God and Auschwitz

German Voices

Klaus Kienzler
“Theology after Auschwitz” in the Federal Republic of Germany after 1945

Gregor Maria Hoff
An Impossible Place, a Necessary Language

Hanspeter Heinz
Coming Together for the Sake of God

Dialogue at the Edge of Auschwitz
– Perspectives for a Theology After Auschwitz

Wydawnictwo UNUM
Centre for Dialogue and Prayer
Kraków-Oświęcim 2014
ISBN 978-83-7643-110-9

The book costs 35,-PLN.
Please order it here:

Centrum Dialogu i Modlitwy
ul. Kolbego 1
PL-32-602 OSWIECIM
kasia@cdim.pl