

Prof Mohammad Dajani

* Oh God, we thank you for what you ordained for us. We pray you shorten our pain and suffering and usher in the good times of happiness and joy. Let the innocent victims of these wars enter your kingdom and enjoy your paradise. Do not afflict us with what we cannot endure. Ease our lives in every matter, bless every provision, and grant us the bliss of this world and the hereafter.

* Oh God, You are forgiving, merciful and compassionate. You are the ultimate forgiver. Bestow upon us the wisdom to understand the genuine value of forgiveness and the courage and will to practice it.

* Oh God, give us the strength not to need anyone or be a burden to anyone. Give us soft and lean hearts unaffected by the spectacle of hostilities and fighting. Help us always mention you, and thank you for your blessings.

* Oh Lord, bestow upon us a just peace that preserves their rights and dignity for both people. Purify us from the evil of egoism, selfishness, prejudice, and pride that causes conflict and wars. But guide us to moderation, tolerance, understanding, compassion, mercy, empathy, and balance, bringing reconciliation, peace, security, prosperity, and harmony into our world.

* Oh Lord, hear the cries and prayers of your children and end this ongoing calamity. Inspire the fighters to throw their weapons and be friends and neighbors. Lighten the hearts of politicians refusing to end this war.
